

Recognizing and Investigating Child Sexual Abuse

Overview: This is a 1 ½ day in-depth training focused on sexual abuse investigations and court presentation of sexual abuse cases. This training is specifically designed for child protection caseworkers, attorneys, and law enforcement officers.

The first day of this training will cover dynamics of child sexual abuse, the importance and function of a Multi-disciplinary team, interviewing, how to corroborate the forensic interview, legal issues, and medical aspects of sexual abuse.

The second day of the training will address issues when bringing the case to the courtroom including dealing with recantations. The course will implement case scenarios and case studies in the instruction.

This training will be presented by trainers with extensive law enforcement, prosecution, and forensic medical experience.

Who should attend? Law Enforcement (Investigators, Patrol, & SRO), DSS, First Responders, and Prosecutors

Continuing Education Credits: This training is expected to be approved by the following:
