Addressing Truancy in South Carolina: Perspectives and Best Practices

Overview: This training focuses on the factors contributing to truancy in South Carolina and how professionals can appropriately and effectively use interventions with youth and families. A focus will be given on how agencies can work together to intervene in a manner that will divert youth from the juvenile justice system and allow them to remain in their schools and communities.

Who should attend? School personnel (administrators, teachers, social workers, school attendance officers), family court professionals (solicitors, defenders, and judges), and employees of child-serving agencies who come in contact with truant youth, such as DJJ, DMH, and DSS.

Continuing Education Credits: This training has been approved for:

- 4.5 Social Work Contact Hours
- 4.5 “Category A” Psychology Hours
- 4.5 CEUs for LPC/LMFT Licenses

It is anticipated that this training will be approved by the following:

SC Commission on Continuing Legal Education & Specialization for 4.5 hours of CLE credits.
